Cherished memories
Here recaptured to
Abide for future years,
Making all Life's foolish fears,
Born of youth's befeverished ways,
Emerge as myths of olden days:
Races run, deeds long done;
Lessons learned
At Thy altars, by Thy fires,
In moments when the mind's desires
New landscapes sought, new riches yearned.

Here we these pages dedicate, and pray
Unending pleasure down Life's way:
New joys and glimpses of bright hope
Through this our gay kaleidoscope.

DR. DAVID F. GRUCHY
President

Dear Cadet:

You and I are a part of the C. H. A. community. Little does it matter how humble our particular situation or how small our circle of friends, our presence is felt through our ideas, our character, and our example. May we not have entered the front door of the Academy with our eyes focused firmly on the rear exit, without having permitted ourselves to look about us, without having given of ourselves to the school, and without having partaken of what it has to offer.

Congratulations to you graduates and others for distinguishing yourselves scholastically, militarily, and in extra-curricular activities of the Academy. I hope the journey thus far has been enjoyed and that it continues to be pleasant and successful all along the way.

Cordially,

David Gruchy

From the time we began to work on the "Sound-Off" our efforts have been concentrated on one goal - a bigger and better annual!

In this the 1956 "Sound-Off" we hope we have preserved for you the memories, friendships, and experiences of learning that will bring pleasure in the years to come.

To Dr. Boyce our thanks for his untiring effort to supply us with good pictures; and to Mr. Alden for proof-reading our work.
